

EDUCATOR EDGE

A new website devoted to helping educators find the professional development activities they need to hone their professional skills

www.EducatorEdge.org

Educators:

- Find the courses, workshops, seminars, online courses, lecture series, conferences and other activities you need to enhance your skills and develop your talents.
- Search by Location where you would like to study, by Subject Areas of your interest, and by Keyword to find what you need.
- Get the information you need to apply for an Individual Award for professional development funds.
- Try it out today!

Professional Development Providers:

- Join the growing number of colleges, universities, organizations and individuals that have their professional development activities listed on this new resource website for educators.
- Register today as a contact person for your organization.
- Log in to create your listings. Listings are moderated and will be available to the public soon after you have added them.
- Contact the webmaster for assistance if you need it.
